

Quantum Biofeedback - Addressing the Cause

The Health Artist uses the Life System Biofeedback solution - it works by measuring minute electromagnetic signals of our bodies down to the cellular level. In essence, it basically reduces stress and stressors in our bodies like toxins and pathogens, which can therefore remove energy blockages and boost immune function.

Simply by freeing up these energy blockages and boosting immune function, you unleash the body's natural power to heal itself. Biofeedback is especially useful in helping the following health conditions: menopause, weight loss, emotional issues, diabetes, allergies, anxiety, back pain, chronic fatigue, chronic pain & injuries, depression, digestive problems, candida, food sensitivities, headaches, high blood pressure, insomnia, migraines, skin disorders, stress, viruses and much more.

The system scans the client's body like a virus-scan on a computer and reports on the biological reactivity and resonance in your body and indicates needs, dysfunctions and vulnerabilities to thousands of items in a session. It is connected to the patient via a headband as well as ankle and wrist straps and sends cellular level electromagnetic signals into the body.

Biofeedback is painless, non invasive and very safe. In fact, you put your body at thousands of times greater risk by taking a Tylenol or holding an AA battery in your hand.

Biofeedback is the measurement of minute electrical signals in your body. Once the system has measured vitamin levels, amino acids, nutrients, food substances, minerals, enzymes, natural sugars, toxins, hormone levels, muscle tone, disease, bacteria, molds, fungi, viruses and the health and balance of internal organs, it then compares these figures against a "norm," and shows us what is affecting the health or causing ill health.

The Goal of Energetic Medicine is physical and emotional healing; and early intervention and correction of imbalances in the body before they lead to illness.

The Biofeedback system is safe because it constantly measures the body's resonance/reactance pattern and determines what benefit has occurred and alters the input accordingly. It only maintains each beneficial setting as long as it is helping and changes it as soon as it is no longer useful.

How do you benefit? Once the stressors that affect the body are reduced - the causes of ill-health - and these energies are balanced properly, the body is raised to a state where it can perform its normal functions and heal itself.

Touch for Health

Touch For Health Kinesiology uses simple muscle testing as a biofeedback tool to find and release blocks of energy flow in the body. The simple, user friendly techniques balance the 14 major meridians of the body, reducing restrictions and built up stress and increasing energy flow. This naturally increases good health. Today, the practice of Touch For Health draws upon 30 years of Kinesiology, traditional to modern Eastern and Western medicine and several healing disciplines.

The Yuen Method™ - Chinese Energetic Medicine see: www.yuenmethod.com

The Yuen Method uses bio-quantum physics and offers relief from various types of debilitating pain because it identifies and corrects the cause of pain – without drugs or supplements, expensive equipment or surgery.

Your pain is just a symptom. This method works because it does not suppress the pain, but addresses the underlying source at all levels of influence, including imaginable and unimaginable. The root cause may be an emotional, physical or mental issue.

When the Yuen Method is applied, not only does the client see a change in the intensity in the symptoms of their pain, but in the underlying core issues – perhaps fears, phobias, tensions, relationships, negative experiences and influences. The client benefits from these alterations and “un-blocking” of core issues which allows the body to return to a desired state of homeostasis and well-being. It is this un-blocking which helps prevent the problem from returning.

What to expect in a session:

The client stands fully clothed or seated if desired, while the practitioner establishes polarity, and then uses energetic muscle testing to find indicators of imbalance. As each priority comes up, the correction is applied in the appropriate sequence. A session may address, fears, allergies, chronic pain, depression. It is a touchless and pain free therapy.

Distant sessions:

Physical touch is not required to bring about change. Because the method applies quantum physics techniques, telephone or distant sessions are also safe and effective.

How does it work:

The Yuen method makes you strong to the triggers and influences in your conscious and subconscious mind that affect your well-being.

This energetic technique helps clear challenges that currently affect your quality of life, can strengthen your family and business relationships and communication, fine tune your finances and help you find your purpose in life.
